

ROBOGALS & AKORN CAVE CHALLENGE

This fun and hands-on robotics workshop includes education about various disciplines of engineering and some of the many opportunities and benefits of STEM.

The Cave Challenge is based upon the real-life rescue of children from a flooded cave in Thailand.

Students will increase their awareness and knowledge of engineering, science and technology. They will also gain additional life skills such as communication, collaboration and critical thinking.

Details for 2025:

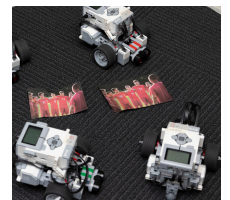

Dates Please contact us to book a suitable date

Venue University of Melbourne
Parkville VIC

Time 9:15 am – 2:30 pm

Who Teams of 6 Students, Years 5-8

Price $360 per team
Includes Morning Tea & Lunch

Please be quick to register your school & students

Contact Akorn to Register:

 0413 466 155

 adam.o@akorn.com.au

 akorn.com.au/robogals

